MEDIA RELEASE Homicide -UPDATE

Media Release Number: 220221-01

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

February 21st, 2022 – UPDATE – VICTIM IDENTIFIED/ADDITIONAL CHARGES

The Huntersville Police Department has identified the victim of this homicide as Alibria “Libby” Kerns (47, W/F), of Rowan County. Huntersville Police received many leads over the last two weeks that aided in the identification of our victim.

Earlier this week, investigators traveled to Grand Rapids, Michigan, to interview the second suspect, Cody “Red” Camarda Graham (36, W/F), as part of this investigation. Graham has been in custody, in Michigan, since well before our investigation began, on unrelated charges. Upon returning from Michigan, the Huntersville Police Department sought, and obtained, charges of First-Degree Murder, Kidnapping, and Concealing a Death. Graham will remain in custody in Michigan until an extradition hearing is completed.

SUSPECT

Cody Camarda Graham

The Huntersville Police Department would like to thank the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department, the North Carolina SBI, the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Medical Examiner’s Office, and the Kannapolis Police Department for their assistance in this case.

February 3rd, 2022 – UPDATE – HELP IDENTIFYING

The Huntersville Police Department is requesting the public’s assistance in identifying the victim involved in this Homicide. The victim is described as a white female, approximately 5’7” and can be seen in the still photo wearing a tee-shirt, shorts and dark shoes with white soles. She was also wearing a silicone ring on her left hand. It is suspected she has been missing since approximately July 2021.

Huntersville Police have identified a second suspect in this case. Since the beginning of this investigation the second suspect has been in custody in another state on unrelated charges.

If you know someone who has been missing from the surrounding area since approximately July 2021, or can identify the victim, please contact please contact Lieutenant Sean Freeston of the Criminal Investigations Division at 704-464-5400.

January 28th, 2022 – UPDATE
